COHEN, MILSTEIN, HAUSFELD & TOLL, P.L.L.C. FIRM RESUME

For decades, Cohen, Milstein, Hausfeld & Toll, P.L.L.C. has represented individuals, small businesses, institutional investors, and employees in many of the major class action cases litigated in the United States for violations of the antitrust, securities, environmental, consumer protection, civil rights/discrimination, ERISA and human rights laws. The Firm is also at the forefront of numerous innovative legal actions that are expanding the quality and availability of legal recourse for aggrieved individuals and businesses both domestic and international. Over its history, Cohen Milstein has obtained many landmark judgments and settlements for individuals and businesses in the United States and abroad.

The firm's most significant past cases include:

- In re Vitamins Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1285 (D.D.C.). Cohen Milstein served as co-lead counsel for two certified classes of businesses that directly purchased bulk vitamins and were overcharged as a result of a ten year global price-fixing and market allocation conspiracy. Chief Judge Hogan approved four major settlements between certain vitamin defendants and Class Plaintiffs, including a landmark partial settlement of $1.1 billion. In a later trial before Chief Judge Hogan concerning four Class Plaintiffs' remaining unsettled Vitamin B4 (choline chloride) claims, a federal jury in Washington unanimously found Japan's second largest trading company, Mitsui & Co., Ltd., its whollyowned U.S. subsidiary Mitsui & Co. (U.S.A.), Inc., DuCoa, LP, a choline chloride manufacturer based in Highland, Illinois, and DuCoa's general partner, DCV, Inc. liable for participating in the conspiracy and ordered them to pay $49,539,234, which is trebled to $148,617,702 under the federal antitrust laws. The case was subsequently settled against those defendants.
- Dukes v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., No. C-01-2252 (N.D. Cal.). Cohen Milstein is one of the co-lead counsel in this discrimination case. In June 2004, U.S. District Court Judge Martin Jenkins ruled that six current and former Wal-Mart employees from California may represent all female employees of Wal-Mart who worked at its U.S. stores anytime after December 26, 1998 in a nationwide sex discrimination class action lawsuit (appeal pending). As the largest civil rights class action ever certified against a private employer, the Judge described the case as "historic in nature, dwarfing other employment discrimination cases that came before it." The action charges that Wal-Mart discriminates against its female retail employees in pay and promotions. The class in this case includes more than 1.5 million current and former female employees of Wal-Mart retail stores in America, including Wal-Mart discount stores, super centers, neighborhood stores, and Sam's Clubs.

- In re Lucent Technologies Securities Litigation, Civ. Action No. 00-621 (JAP) (D.N.J.). A settlement in this massive securities fraud class action was reached in late March 2003. The class portion of the settlement amounts to over $500 million in cash, stock and warrants and ranks as the second largest securities class action settlement ever completed. Cohen Milstein represented one of the co-lead plaintiffs in this action, a private mutual fund.
- Nate Pease, et al. v. Jasper Wyman & Son, Inc., et al., Civil Action No. 00-015 (Knox County Superior Court, Me.). In 2004, a state court jury from Maine found three blueberry processing companies liable for participating in a four-year price-fixing and non-solicitation conspiracy that artificially lowered the prices defendants paid to approximately 800 growers for wild blueberries. The jury ordered defendants Cherryfield Foods, Inc., Jasper Wyman & Son, Inc., and Allen's Blueberry Freezer, Inc. to pay $18.68 million in damages, the amount which the growers would have been paid absent the defendants' conspiracy. After a mandatory trebling of this damage figure under Maine antitrust law, the total amount of the verdict for the plaintiffs is just over $56 million. The Firm served as co-lead counsel.
- In re StarLink Corn Products, Liability Litigation, MDL No. 1403. (N.D. Ill.). Cohen Milstein successfully represented U.S. corn farmers in a national class action against Aventis CropScience USA Holding and Garst Seed Company, the manufacturer and primary distributor of StarLink corn seeds. StarLink is a genetically modified corn variety that the United States government permitted for sale as animal feed and for industrial purposes, but never approved for human consumption. However, StarLink was found in corn products sold in grocery stores across the country and was traced to widespread contamination of the U.S. commodity corn supply. The Firm, as co-lead counsel, achieved a final settlement providing more than $110 million for U.S. corn farmers, which was approved by a federal district court in April 2003. This settlement was the first successful resolution of tort claims brought by farmers against the manufacturers of genetically modified seeds.
- In re Diet Drug Litigation (Fen-Phen), MDL No. 1203 (E.D. Pa.). As a member of the Plaintiffs' Management Committee and Sub-Class Counsel, Cohen Milstein played a major part in the success of the Fen-Phen diet drug litigation and settlement (In re: Diet Drugs (Phentermine, Fenfluramine, Dexfenfluramine) Products Liability Litigation, MDL 1203). CMHT and other plaintiffs' counsel achieved the largest settlement ever obtained in a mass tort case - $3.75 billion - on behalf of millions of U.S. consumers who used Pondimin (fenfluramine) or Redux (dexfenfluramine), either alone or in combination with phentermine, diet drugs that are associated with heart valve damage.

- Snyder v. Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company, No. 97/0633 (Sup. Ct. N.Y. Onondaga Cty.). Cohen Milstein served as one of plaintiffs' principal counsel in this case on behalf of persons who held life insurance policies issued by Nationwide through its captive agency force. The action alleged consumer fraud and misrepresentations. Plaintiffs obtained a settlement valued at more than $85 million. The judge praised the efforts of Cohen Milstein and its co-counsel for having done "a very, very good job for all the people." He complimented "not only the manner" in which the result was arrived at, but also the "time ... in which it was done."
- Oncology & Radiation Associates, P.A. v. Bristol Myers Squibb Co., et al., No. 1:01CV02313 (D.D.C.). Cohen Milstein has been co-lead counsel in this case since its inception in 2001. Plaintiffs alleged that Bristol-Myers Squibb unlawfully monopolized the United States market for paclitaxel, a cancer drug discovered and developed by the United States government, which Bristol sells under the brand name Taxol. Bristol's scheme included a conspiracy with American BioScience, Inc., a generic manufacturer, to block generic competition. Cohen, Milstein's investigation and prosecution of this litigation on behalf of direct purchasers of Taxol led to a settlement of $65,815,000 that was finally approved by U.S. District Judge Emmet G. Sullivan on August 14, 2003 and preceded numerous Taxol-related litigations brought by the Federal Trade Commission and State Attorneys General offices.
- Kruman v. Christie's International PLC, et al., Docket No. 01-7309. A $40 million settlement on behalf of all persons who bought or sold items through Christie's or Sotheby's auction houses in non-internet actions was approved in this action. Cohen Milstein served as one of three leading counsel on behalf of foreign plaintiffs. The Court noted that approval of the settlement was particularly appropriate, given the significant obstacles that faced plaintiffs and plaintiffs' counsel in the litigation. The settlement marked the first time that claims on behalf of foreign plaintiffs under U.S. antitrust laws have been resolved in a U.S. court, a milestone in U.S. antitrust jurisprudence.
- In re Infant Formula Consumer Antitrust Litigation (multiple state courts). Cohen Milstein instituted price-fixing cases on behalf of indirectpurchasers in 17 states under state antitrust laws against three companies who conspired to drive up the price of infant formula. The cases resulted in settlements of $64 million for purchasers of infant formula.
- Domestic Air Transportation Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Ga.) Plaintiffs alleged a conspiracy among major airlines to set prices. In one of the largest consumer class actions ever brought to a successful conclusion, Cohen Milstein was one of the lead counsel and obtained a settlement of travel discounts and cash totaling $458 million for the class of individuals and businesses.
- In re The Exxon Valdez Litigation, No. A89-095 Civ. (D. Ak.). The firm was selected from dozens of law firms around the country by federal and state judges in Alaska to serve as co-lead counsel for plaintiffs in the largest environmental case in United States history that resulted in a jury verdict of more than $5 billion (reversed and remanded for revised punitive damages award; further proceedings pending).

Holocaust Litigation. In the historic Swiss Banks litigation, CMHT served, pro bono, as co-lead counsel for Holocaust survivors against the Swiss banks that collaborated with the Nazi regime during World War II by laundering stolen funds, jewelry and art treasures. Cohen Milstein obtained a $1.25 billion settlement, leading the presiding judge to call the firm's work "indispensable." See In re Holocaust Victim Assets Litig., Case No. CV 96-4849 (ERK) (MDG) (Memorandum of Chief Judge Korman dated July 26, 2002). The Firm was also a lead counsel in litigation by survivors of World War II-era forced and slave labor in litigation against the German companies that profited from using the labor of concentration camp inmates. This litigation, which resulted in an unprecedented settlement of $5.2 billion, was resolved by multinational negotiations involving the defendants, plaintiffs' counsel, and the governments of several countries for approximately two million claimants.

Cohen Milstein has contributed over 37,000 hours of time to human rights and pro bono cases since 1996. As an example, the Firm represented eight survivors and/or families of the victims of the September 11, 2001 attack on the Pentagon before the Federal compensation fund. Cohen Milstein has obtained a substantial recovery for each, including the highest recovery to date, $6.8 million, for an injured individual.

- Roberts v. Texaco, Inc., 94-Civ. 2015 (S.D.N.Y.). Cohen Milstein represented a class of African-American employees in this landmark litigation that resulted in the then-largest race discrimination settlement in history ($176 million in cash, salary increases and equitable relief). The Court hailed the work of class counsel for, inter alia, "framing an imaginative settlement, that may well have important ameliorative impact not only at Texaco but in the corporate context as a whole ...".
- Conanan v. Tanoue, No. 00-CV-3091 (ESH). Cohen Milstein represented African-American employees at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) in this race discrimination suit, which settled for $14 million. The settlement provides the largest payment made in an employment discrimination class action based on race against a federal agency.
- Trotter v. Perdue Farms, Inc., Case No. 99-893 (RRM) (JJF) (MPT), D. Del. This suit on behalf of hourly workers at Perdue's chicken processing facilities -- which employ approximately 15,000 people -- forced Perdue to pay employees for time spent "donning and doffing," that is, obtaining, putting on, sanitizing and removing protective equipment that they must use both for their own safety and to comply with USDA regulations for the safety of the food supply. The suit alleged that Perdue's practice of not counting donning and

In addition, Cohen Milstein is an innovator in new areas of the law. The Firm was in the forefront of filing antitrust claims on behalf of indirect purchasers in 1993 and 1994, when it filed state-court actions in 18 states on behalf of indirect purchasers of infant formula. This was the first effort to systematically and simultaneously pursue treble damages claims on behalf of indirect-purchasing consumers in all states where antitrust laws permitted such claims. This approach, and variations of it, have since become the accepted model for pursuing antitrust damages on behalf of indirectpurchasing consumers. The Firm also has been in the forefront of the development of international antitrust theory and litigation of claims. As the global economy has produced worldwide conglomerates, so, too, has the nature of antitrust violations changed. For example, in Kruman v. Christie's International PLC, et al. Docket No. 01-7309 and In re Bulk Vitamins Antitrust Litigation, MDL 1285 (D.D.C.), both the parties and the anticompetitive actions were played out on a world, rather than domestic, stage. The firm also represents and won Lead Plaintiff status for domestic and foreign investors in a foreign company's bonds, in a PSLRA litigation being pursued in the United States, In re Parmalat Securities Litigation, Master Docket 04 Civ 0030 (LAK) (S.D.N.Y.). The Firm has affiliated offices around the world, in the United Kingdom, Italy, South Africa, Panama and Australia.

Cohen, Milstein, Hausfeld & Toll, P.L.L.C. was established in March 1986 and is based in Washington, D.C. with offices in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago. From 1969 until 1986, the Firm was the Washington, D.C. office of the Philadelphia law firm currently known as Kohn, Swift & Graf, P.C..

The Firm has had one of the most varied and extensive plaintiffs' practices in the United States, and it has played a prominent role in major litigations since 1969. These cases include:

In re North Atlantic Air Travel Antitrust Litigation, Civ. Action No. 84-1103 (D.D.C.); the Firm, as co-lead counsel, obtained a class settlement of $30 million in coupons for air travelers between the United States and England.

In re Screws Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 443 (D. Mass.); the Firm, as co-lead counsel, obtained a class settlement of approximately $50 million.

Ocean Shipping Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 395 (S.D.N.Y); the Firm, as colead counsel, obtained a class settlement of approximately $50 million.

In re Corrugated Container Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 310 (S.D. Tex.); the Firm was one of a handful of firms involved in the successful trial of this massive antitrust case which was eventually settled for approximately $366 million.

Murphy, Derivatively On Behalf of Nominal Defendant National Health Laboratories Incorporated v. Perelman, Case No. 659511 (Cal. Sup. San Diego Cty.); as one of co-lead counsel in the derivative action, the firm and others obtained a global settlement of class and derivative litigation for $65 million.

In re Flat Glass Antitrust Litigation, MDL No.1200, (W.D. Pa.); the Firm as colead counsel obtained a total of $61.7 million in settlement funds on behalf of glass shops, window manufacturers, and others who directly purchased the affected products from the defendants.

Buspirone Antitrust Litigation, MDL No. 1413 (S.D.N.Y.); as one of four co-lead counsel, the Firm and others obtained a $90 million settlement for the class.

Masonite Hardboard Siding Litigation, Civ. Action No. 996787 (Cal. Super. Ct.); the Firm, as one of the lead counsel, obtained a settlement valued at hundreds of millions of dollars.

Polybutylene Pipe Litigation, Civ. Action No. W 2004-017770COA-R3-CV (W.D. Tenn.); the Firm helped obtain a settlement valued at $900 million.

Biben v. Card, No. 84-0844-CV-W-6 (W.D. Mo.); the Firm, as one of two co-lead counsel, negotiated settlements for $11.9 million, which was 93% of class members' damages.

In re Newbridge Networks Securities Litigation, Civ. Action No. 90-1061

(D.D.C.); the Firm, as co-counsel, obtained a cash and stock class settlement valued at approximately $20 million.

Jiffy Lube Securities Litigation, Civ. Action No. Y-89-1939 (D. Md.); the Firm, as co-lead counsel, obtained class settlements for a total of $12 million.

In re Saxon Securities Litigation, Civ. Action No. 82 Civ. 3103 (S.D.N.Y.); the Firm, as co-lead counsel, obtained a class settlement of approximately $20 million.

Grossman v. Waste Management, Civ. Action No. 83 Civ. 2167 (N.D. Ill.); the Firm, as co-lead counsel, obtained a class settlement of approximately $13 million.

In re Warner Communications Securities Litigation, 618 F. Supp. 735 (S.D.N.Y. 1986); the Firm was one of plaintiffs' counsel in this case where a class settlement of $18.4 million was obtained.

In re Tandon Securities Litigation, No. CV86-4566 (C.D. Cal.); the Firm played a major role in this class action where settlement was valued at approximately $16 million.

Immunex Securities Litigation, No. C92-548WD (W.D. Wash.); the firm was one of lead counsel where the largest securities class action settlement in Seattle --$14 million -- was recovered.

In re Caremark Securities Litigation, Case No. 94 C 4751 (N.D. Ill.); the Firm, as co-lead counsel, obtained a class settlement of $25 million.

In re Commercial Explosives Antitrust Litigation, Consolidated Case No. 2:96md 1093S (D. Utah); the Firm, as co-lead counsel, obtained a settlement of $77 million.

Cohen Milstein has also served as lead or co-lead counsel, or on Plaintiffs' Executive Committee(s), in many dozens of antitrust, securities, consumer protection or product liability, civil rights, and human rights class action cases.

Attorney Profiles - Partners

Herbert E. Milstein

Herbert E. Milstein began practicing law with Jerry S. Cohen in 1970 - the birth of the Firm. Mr. Milstein has been lead or principal counsel in many of the best known securities class actions litigated during the past 35 years. He is the senior member of the Securities Fraud/Investor Protection practice group.

Mr. Milstein is the author of numerous articles on topics involving class action litigations and the Federal securities laws. He recently authored an article on current issues involving federal securities laws and a separate article in the book entitled The Burger Years. He is also the author of a monograph on the attorney-client privilege.

As an adjunct Professor of Law at Georgetown University Law Center from 1980-1987, he taught complex litigation and continues to lecture on securities litigation and class actions at law schools and seminars sponsored by the American Bar Association, state bar associations, and continuing legal education organizations. In 1985, he received a Silver Gavel award from the American Bar Association for his distinguished example of public service.

Mr. Milstein formerly served on the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission for five and one-half years, and last held the position of Chief Enforcement Attorney, Division of Corporate Regulation. From 1976-1980, Mr. Milstein served as Equity Receiver for National American Life Insurance Company, appointed by Judge Charles R. Richey, in SEC v. National Pacific Corp. For that work, the Chairman of the SEC said Mr. Milstein and the Firm served "with distinction."

Formerly the President of the National Association of Securities and Commercial Law Attorneys (NASCAT), he also served as Treasurer of that organization for six years. He is a member of the American Law Institute, and a member and former Chairman of the Executive Council of the Securities Law Committee of the Federal Bar Association.

Mr. Milstein is currently on the Board of Directors of several organizations, including the Appleseed Foundation and The Studio Theatre of Washington, DC.

Mr. Milstein graduated from Harvard College (cum laude, 1958) and Columbia University School of Law (LL.B., 1961).

Mr. Milstein is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Massachusetts.

Michael D. Hausfeld

Michael Hausfeld, one of the country's top civil litigators, joined the Firm in 1971. He is a member of the Antitrust and International practice groups.

Mr. Hausfeld's career has included some of the largest and most successful class actions in the fields of human rights, discrimination and antitrust law. He long has had an abiding interest in social reform cases, and was among the first lawyers in the U.S. to assert that sexual harassment was a form of discrimination prohibited by Title VII; he successfully tried the first case establishing that principle. He represented Native Alaskans whose lives were affected by the 1989 Exxon Valdez oil spill; later, he negotiated a then-historic $176 million settlement from Texaco, Inc. in a racial-bias discrimination case.

In Friedman v. Union Bank of Switzerland, Mr. Hausfeld represented a class of victims of the Holocaust whose assets were wrongfully retained by private Swiss banks during and after World War II. The case raised novel issues of international banking law and international human rights law. He successfully represented the Republic of Poland, the Czech Republic, the Republic of Belarus, the Republic of Ukraine and the Russian Federation on issues of slave and forced labor for both Jewish and non-Jewish victims of Nazi persecution during World War II. He currently represents Jubilee 2000, Khulumani, and other NGOs in litigation involving abuses under apartheid law in South Africa, and is pursuing a RICO litigation against the tobacco industry with regard to the sale of and representations on "light" cigarettes.

Mr. Hausfeld has a long record of successful litigation in the antitrust field, on behalf of both individuals and classes, in cases involving monopolization, tie-ins, exclusive dealings and price fixing. He is or has been co-lead counsel in antitrust cases against manufacturers of genetically engineered foods, managed healthcare companies, bulk vitamin manufacturers, technology companies and international industrial cartels. He is actively involved in ongoing investigations into antitrust cases abroad, and was the only private lawyer permitted to attend and represent the interests of consumers worldwide in the 2003 closed hearings by the EU Commission in the Microsoft case.

Chief Judge Edward Korman (E.D.N.Y.), has noted that Mr. Hausfeld is one of the two "leading class action lawyers in the United States." He has been profiled in, and recognized by, many articles and surveys. Most recently, a Forbes magazine article reported on Mr. Hausfeld's work to establish an international alliance for the protection of consumers and investors worldwide. He was named one of thirty master negotiators in Done Deal: Insights from Interviews with the World's Best Negotiations, by Michael Benoliel, Ed.D. The Wall Street Journal profiled him and his practice, and he has been recognized by The National Law Journal as one of the "Top 100 Influential Lawyers in America." He has been described by one of the country's leading civil rights columnists as an "extremely penetrating lawyer", and by a colleague (in a Washington Post article) as a lawyer who "has a very inventive mind when it comes to litigation. He thinks of things most lawyers don't because they have originality pounded out of them in law school." The New York Times referred to Mr. Hausfeld as one of the nation's "most prominent antitrust lawyers," and Washingtonian Magazine has listed Mr. Hausfeld in several surveys as one of Washington's 75 best lawyers, saying he "consistently brings in the biggest judgments in the history of law" and that he is "a Washington lawyer determined to change the world -- and succeeding."

His most recent awards include the 2002 B'Nai Brith Humanitarian of the Year award; the Simon Wiesenthal Center Award for Distinguished Service; and the U.S. Department of Energy's Human Spirit Award, presented "in tribute to a person who understands the obligation to seek truth and act on it is not the burden of some, but of all; it is universal."

He is a frequent speaker on antitrust, human rights and international law, most recently participating in a panel discussion at the Spring Meeting of the ABA Section of Antitrust Law entitled "International Antitrust: Developments After Empagran and Intel" and at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) Annual Meeting in London entitled "Human Rights in An Integrated World: The Apartheid Reparations Litigation in the USA." He taught Masters Degree courses at Georgetown University Law Center from 1980 to 1987, and was an Adjunct Professor at the George Washington University Law School from 1996 to 1998 and now sits on its Board of Directors.

Mr. Hausfeld is a graduate of Brooklyn College, receiving a B.A. in Political Science with a minor in Russian History (cum laude, 1966) and the National Law Center, George Washington University (J.D., with honors, 1969). He was a member of the Order of the Coif and the Board of Editors for the George Washington Law Review (1968-69).

He is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia.

Steven J. Toll

Steven J. Toll joined the Firm in 1979 and has been lead or principal counsel in some of the most highly publicized stock fraud cases over the past 25 years. He is a member of the Securities Fraud/Investor Protection practice group.

Some of Mr. Toll's more notable cases include those against Lucent Technologies, which was settled for approximately $575 million, the second largest securities class action settlement ever achieved; Caremark ($25 million recovery for shareholders), where the defendant pled guilty to Medicare fraud and paid the U.S. Government a fine of approximately $160 million; and National Health Labs, which paid $65 million to settle shareholder and derivative cases. The breadth of his experience is shown from his work on the litigation teams in In re Saxon Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y.) (fraud involving fictitious photocopier sales; recovery of $20 million); In re ECI Telecom Securities Litigation (E.D.Va.) (telecom company accused of presenting false revenue and earnings figures; recovery of $22.75 million); In re Immunex Securities Litigation (W.D. Wash.) (biotech company accused of concealing significant business problems; recovery of $14 million); Grossman v. Waste Management, (N.D. Ill.)(defendant accused of withholding information concerning violations of the environmental laws and regulatory standards; recovery of $13 million); In re Jiffy Lube Securities Litigation (D. Md.) (company accused of deceptive accounting practices; recovery of $12 million); and In re Itron Securities Litigation (E.D. Wash.) (defendant company accused of concealing flaws in its technology; recovery of $12 million).

Mr. Toll also served as co-lead counsel in one of the most publicized frauds of the 1990s -- Cascade International (S.D. Fla.) where the mastermind of the fraud, Victor Incendy, is still a fugitive from justice. The case settled on the eve of trial against Raymond James Inc. -- the only securities class action ever successfully litigated against a brokerage firm for its role as a research analyst.

He is currently one of the Firm's team serving as co-lead counsel in the securities fraud class action involving Parmalat, the Italian dairy manufacturer; the case is known as Europe's "Enron". He is also leading several securities fraud cases against other public companies.

Mr. Toll was profiled in the February 1996 Washington Business Journal as one of five attorneys that stand out as the "cream of the crop" in the Washington D.C. legal community.

He has written for and spoken at various conferences about securities law issues, including, inter alia, The Plaintiffs' Perspective, Securities Regulation and the New Law, National Legal Center for the Public Interest, No. 1, Sept. 1996; The Sarbanes-Oxley Bill Provides No Assistance To Investors Seeking To Recovery From Corporate Fraud, ABA Annual Meeting, August 2002; and The Analyst Cases Involving Merrill Lynch, and Its Internet Analyst Henry Blodget, and Salomon Smith Barney and Its Telecommunications Analyst Jack Grubman, Mass Torts Made Perfect (presented January 2003). Mr. Toll is an honors graduate of the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania (B.S., Accounting, cum laude, 1972). He graduated from Georgetown University Law Center (J.D., 1975) where he was Special Project Editor of the Tax Lawyer.

He is admitted to practice in Virginia and the District of Columbia.

Lisa M. Mezzetti

Lisa Mezzetti, a Partner at Cohen Milstein, joined the Firm in 1984, and is a member of the Securities Fraud/Investor Protection and the Consumer Protection practice groups.

In her securities work, Ms. Mezzetti represented the corporate plaintiff in a private litigation alleging damages from the purchase of a healthcare technology company, and represented 1,900 plaintiffs in a series of 25 federal court suits concerning municipal bonds. Her shareholder class actions include Murphy, Derivatively On Behalf of Nominal Defendant National Health Laboratories Inc. v. Perelman (Cal. Super. San Diego Cty.) (global settlement of class and derivative litigations for total of $65 million); Flecker v. Hollywood Entertainment Corp. (D. Or.) ($15 million settlement, reached the day before trial was to begin); and Biben v. Card (W.D. Mo.)(93% of class members' damages recovered in settlement). She also has represented parties in securities arbitrations (both as claimant's counsel or defense counsel for the broker) and defended clients in investigations and enforcement actions of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In consumer cases, Ms. Mezzetti is or was one of the lead counsel in In re Lupron Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (D. Mass.) (brought against pharmaceutical companies on pricing policies and methods; combined $150 million settlement pleading); Howard v. Ford Motor Co. (Cal. Sup. Ct.) (order of the Court on equitable count required prospective recall of 1.7 million cars; settled immediately before scheduled second jury trial); and Fischl v. Direct Merchants Credit Card Bank, N.A. (Henn. Cnty. Minn.) (brought by credit card consumers, alleging improper charges and payment processes; settlement included credits for overpayments and changes in business practices). She has litigated class actions under the ERISA laws, and brought one of the first class actions filed under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act.

Ms. Mezzetti is a public arbitrator for the National Association of Securities Dealers, hearing disputes between customers and brokers. She speaks at legal education seminars and has been quoted in the media on issues concerning consumer law and securities class actions. Ms. Mezzetti most recently was a panelist at the Federal Trade Commission's Workshop on Consumer Class Actions and at the annual conference of the Association of Trial Lawyers of America on unfair trade practices and deceptive trade practices statutes. The transcript of the FTC workshop, and her related article, The Coupon Can Be the Ticket: The Use of "Coupon" and Other Non-Monetary Redress in Class Action Settlements (co-authored with Whitney Case) are published at 18.4 Geo. J. Legal Ethics 1431 (2005). She also speaks on corporate governance issues at conferences of institutional investors, and was a guest panelist on a Washington, D.C. cable television show concerning hiring and working with stock brokers and financial advisors.

Before joining Cohen Milstein, Ms. Mezzetti was a litigation associate of Shea & Gould of New York City.

Ms. Mezzetti serves as a member of the Boards of Directors of The International Alliance for Women (a worldwide organization that supports and promotes women entrepreneurs, professionals and executives) and The Financial Women's Association of New York, She is on the D.C. Advisory Board of The Joffrey Ballet of Chicago.

Ms. Mezzetti graduated from the Columbus School of Law, Catholic University of America in 1980, where she served as a Vice-Chancellor of the Moot Court Board. In 1986, she received a Master of Laws degree, with a specialty in Securities Regulation, from Georgetown University Law Center. Her bachelor's degree was awarded by Stonehill College (B.A, English., magna cum laude, 1977).

Ms. Mezzetti is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and New York.

Andrew N. Friedman

Andrew Friedman, a Partner at the Firm, joined Cohen Milstein in 1985. He is the head of the Consumer Protection practice group and a member of the Securities Fraud/Investor Protection practice group.

In the consumer protection area, Mr. Friedman is litigating numerous class actions including cases on telephone company overcharges, Strugano v. Nextel Communications, Inc., et al. (Sup. Ct., L.A. Cnty, CA) and defective automobile engine coolants, In re General Motors Dex-Cool Products Liability Litigation (S.D. Ill). He has been instrumental in securing significant recoveries on behalf of thousands of consumers. He was one of the principal counsel in Snyder v. Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company (Sup. Ct., Onondaga Cnty, N.Y.), a class action that resulted in a settlement valued at between $85 million and $103 million. As one of two co-lead counsel in a class action against Thomson Consumer Electronics, Mr. Friedman reached a court-approved agreement that made up to $100 million available for persons who paid for unreimbursed repairs to televisions.

Mr. Friedman also has been involved in many successful securities class actions. He served as one of co-lead or principal counsel in Norman Frank et al. v. David L. Paul (recovery of over $18 million); In re Jiffy Lube Securities Litigation (D. Md.) (recovery of over $12 million); and In re Immunex Securities Litigation (W.D.Wash.) (recovery of $14 million, then the largest securities class action settlement in Seattle). Mr. Friedman was one of the Firm's attorneys selected by the County of Cuyahoga, Ohio to prosecute a lawsuit that sought to recover losses from the County's Secured Assets Fund Earnings Program (S.A.F.E.). The lawsuit alleged that broker/dealers and a financial institution assisted the County in engaging in unsuitable and inappropriate investments and trading activity. The case settled favorably for $9.5 million.

Mr. Friedman has been a speaker on numerous panels and legal education seminars on various topics, including securities class actions and accounting fraud. He was featured in a November 15, 1997 Washington Post article about securities class actions and profiled in the April 14, 2000 edition of The Washington Business Journal.

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Mr. Friedman served as an attorney with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office.

Mr. Friedman graduated from Tufts University with a B.A. in Psychology (1980, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa) and is a 1983 graduate of the National Law Center, George Washington University.

He is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and New York.

Richard S. Lewis

Richard Lewis, a Partner at the Firm, joined Cohen Milstein in 1987 and is the head of the Unsafe Drugs & Environmental Health Threats practice group, for both domestic and international matters.

He has been appointed to serve as co-lead counsel in mass tort and class action cases including In re StarLink Corn Products (N.D. III) (settlement of $110 million) and In re PPA (asserting claims by users of unsafe over-the-counter medicines). He has also been appointed to the MDL Steering Committee in In re Prempro Products Liability Litigation (E.D. Ark.).

In addition, Mr. Lewis served as lead counsel in numerous actions to obtain medical monitoring relief for communities exposed to toxic chemicals from hazardous waste disposal practices or unsafe drugs. These include In re Diet Drug Litigation (Fen-Phen) (E.D. Pa), which resulted in a $4 billion settlement providing medical monitoring in addition to individual personal injury awards in the hundreds of thousands of dollars, and Harman v. Lipari, a Superfund case that resulted in a settlement providing medical monitoring for thousands of residents who lived on or played near a landfill. He has litigated both individual and class childhood lead poisoning cases and he is presently lead counsel in a case against the lead pigment industry, City of Milwaukee v. NL Industries Inc., which has succeeded on appeal. Mr. Lewis is also handling mass tort cases involving Vioxx, Celebrex, Bextra and Hormone Therapy, and environmental cases in India and Zambia.

Mr. Lewis graduated from Tufts University with a B.A. in English (cum laude, 1976), and earned his Master's in Public Health degree from the University of Michigan (1981) and his law degree from the University of Pennsylvania (J.D., cum laude, 1986). He was Comments Editor for the University of Pennsylvania Law Review (1985-86) and authored the Comment, O.C.A.W. v. American Cyanamid: The Shrinking of the Occupational Safety and Health Act, U. Pa. L. Rev. (July, 1985). After law school, he was a law clerk for the Honorable Stanley S. Brotman, U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey.

Mr. Lewis is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia.

Daniel S. Sommers

Daniel Sommers, a Partner at the Firm, joined Cohen Milstein in 1988. He heads the Securities Fraud/Investor Protection practice group.

Mr. Sommers currently is lead or co-lead counsel in numerous securities fraud class actions, including In re Compuware Securities Litigation (E.D. Mich.); In re Gilat Satellite Securities Litigation (E.D.N.Y.); and In re Interpool Securities Litigation (D.N.J.).

Mr. Sommers played a major role in numerous cases which resulted in multi-million dollar recoveries for individual and institutional investors, including Steiner v. Southmark Corporation (N.D.Tex.) (over $70 million); In re PictureTel Inc. Securities Litigation (D.Mass.) ($12 million); In re Nextel Communications Securities Litigation (D.D.C.) (up to $27 million); and In re ECI Telecom Securities Ltd. Litigation (E.D.Va.) ($21.75 million). Mr. Sommers also represented a privately-held overseas corporation in a multibillion-dollar, multi-party, complex action alleging fraud in a corporate acquisition.

Mr. Sommers is a frequent commentator on issues relating to the federal securities laws and corporate governance issues. He was a guest panelist on "It's Your Business," a nationally syndicated television program, where he spoke on investor lawsuits, and has been quoted with respect to the federal securities laws in numerous publications including Investor Relations magazine. He also was a panelist at the George Washington University Law School, where he spoke on the practice of law from the plaintiff's perspective. Mr. Sommers also has spoken before various institutional investor groups, including the California State Association of County Retirement Systems, to whom he spoke on corporate governance and fiduciary duties and liabilities.

He is a 1983 graduate of Union College, earning a B.A. in Political Science (magna cum laude), and a 1986 graduate of the National Law Center, George Washington University.

He is admitted to practice in New York, New Jersey and the District of Columbia.

Daniel A. Small

Dan Small, a Partner at Cohen Milstein, joined the Firm in 1988 and is the head of the Antitrust practice group.

Among the antitrust cases on which Mr. Small is currently working are: In re Microsoft Antitrust Litigation (D. Md.), in which he serves as chair of the experts committee and Rasmussen v. General Motors (Cir. Ct., Milwaukee Cty., Wisc.) (and related cases in eight other states), a state-wide class action alleging conspiracy among auto manufacturers and distributors to maintain dual price systems between the United States and Canada. He was co-lead counsel for the end-user plaintiffs in In re Buspirone Antitrust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.), a case alleging monopolization and market allocation claims against a brand name drug manufacturer for delaying generic entry to the market that settled for $90 million. Mr. Small also was lead counsel for the plaintiffs in Pease, et al. v. Jasper Wyman & Son, et al. (Super. Ct., Knox Cty., Me), a price-fixing class action brought on behalf of Maine wild blueberry growers. The case was tried in November 2003, and the jury returned an $18.68 million verdict for the Class, which after trebling and other additions, resulted in a $56 million judgment.

Mr. Small's substantial appellate experience includes briefing and arguing Free v. Abbott Laboratories in the United States Supreme Court. The case presented the issue of whether a supplemental jurisdiction statute overruled Zahn v. International Paper Co. The Court split 4-4, with Justice O'Connor recusing herself. Mr. Small successfully briefed and argued appeals before the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals in In re Brand Name Prescription Drug Antitrust Litigation (7th Cir. 1997) on the issue of whether the district court had subject matter jurisdiction, and in Paper Systems, Inc. v. Nippon Paper Industries Co., Ltd. (7th Cir. 2002) holding that the federal direct purchaser rule does not immunize a defendant from liability for the direct sales of its co-conspirators. Mr. Small also briefed and argued the appeal in Mack v. Bristol-Myers Squibb (Fla. 1st DCA 1996), the first opinion construing the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act to permit indirect purchasers to sue for damages for antitrust violations.

He has been a speaker at events organized by the American Antitrust Institute, the Conference Board, the American Bar Association and the District of Columbia Bar, among others.

Mr. Small is a 1981 graduate of Colgate University, receiving a B.A. (cum laude) in History. He graduated from the American University's Washington College of Law in 1986 and joined Cohen Milstein after serving as Law Clerk to the Honorable Roger Vinson, U.S. District Judge for the Northern District of Florida (1986 to 1988).

Mr. Small is admitted to practice in Maryland and the District of Columbia.

Joseph M. Sellers

Joseph Sellers, a Partner at the Firm and head of the Civil Rights & Employment practice group, joined Cohen Milstein in 1997.

Mr. Sellers has represented victims of discrimination and illegal employment practices individually and through class actions. He has tried several civil rights class actions to judgment before juries and has argued more than 25 appeals in the federal and state appellate courts, including the United States Supreme Court. He has served as class counsel, and typically lead counsel, in more than 30 civil rights and employment class actions.

Those cases have included: Beck. v. Boeing Company (W.D. Wash.), which included a class of more than 28,000 women employees at Boeing facilities in Washington state alleging sex discrimination in pay and overtime decisions; Conway, et al. v. Deutsch

(E.D. Va.), for a class of all female undercover case officers at the CIA alleging sex discrimination in promotions and job assignments; Dukes v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (N.D. Cal.), where the Court has certified the largest class in such a case: more than 1.5 million women employees at Wal-Mart stores, alleging sex discrimination in promotions and pay decisions; Johnson, et al. v. Freeh (D.D.C.), for a class of African-American FBI special agents alleging racial discrimination in promotion and job assignments; Keepseagle v. Venamen (D.D.C.), for a class of Native American farmers and ranchers denied credit opportunities by USDA; and Neal v. Director, D.C Dept. of Corrections (D.D.C.), the first sexual harassment class action tried to a jury, for a class of women correctional employees and women and men subject to retaliation at the D.C. Department of Corrections.

Throughout his career, Mr. Sellers has also been active in legislative matters. He has testified more than 20 times before Committees of the United States Senate and House of Representatives on various civil rights and employment matters. He worked on the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1991 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990.

Mr. Sellers has trained lawyers at the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission and the U.S. Department of Justice on the trial of civil rights cases and has lectured extensively throughout the country on various civil rights and employment topics. He was an Adjunct Professor at the Washington College of Law at American University, where he taught Employment Discrimination law, and at the Georgetown University Law Center, where he taught a course on Professional Responsibility.

He served on the Clinton/Gore Transition Team in 1992 and 1993. He headed the teams reviewing the operations of the EEOC, the Office of the Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights, and various sections of the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice. He also served as a Co-Chair of the Task Force of the D.C. Circuit on Gender, Race and Ethnic Bias and was appointed by panels of the D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals and the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia.

Mr. Sellers was recognized as one of the top lawyers in Washington by Washingtonian Magazine in 2002 and again in 2004, and as one of the top dozen employment lawyers in Washington by The Legal Times. He is a professionally-trained mediator and has served as the President of the Washington Council of Lawyers.

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Mr. Sellers served as head of the Employment Discrimination Project of the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs for over 15 years.

Mr. Sellers received a J.D. from Case Western Reserve School of Law (1979), where he served as Research Editor of the Case Western Reserve Law Review, and a B.A. in American History and Literature from Brown University (1975).

Mr. Sellers is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia.

Mark S. Willis

Mark Willis joined the Firm in 1989 and is a Partner in the Securities Fraud/Investor Protection practice group. Mr. Willis heads the Firm's international securities practice as well as its domestic client development work.

Mr. Willis focuses his practice on investor protection issues, including the enforcement of the federal securities laws. In that role he works with a number of European and domestic institutional investors on investor protection and corporate governance matters. He currently acts as co-lead counsel in the In re Parmalat Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y.), the largest fraud in European corporate history that is frequently referred to as Europe's "Enron". Mr. Willis represents Italian, French and Belgian institutions in that action. He also represented Brussels-based KBC Asset Management in the In re Royal Dutch/Shell Securities Litigation. Among other notable cases, Mr. Willis litigated against Caremark International in which Caremark was accused of federal Medicare fraud, subsequently pled guilty and paid the U.S. Government a fine of approximately $160 million and $25 million in a civil settlement. Mr. Willis also litigated against National Health Labs, which resulted in a $65 million settlement, and settled claims against Nextel Communications and Motorola.

Mr. Willis has written extensively on corporate, securities and investor protection issues, often with an international focus. He authored Chapter 60 of Securities Law Techniques, titled Admission of Securities to Official Listing on Stock Exchanges Within the European Union and the Subsequent Disclosure Obligations (1998). He published a related article in the Fall 1997 issue of the International Law News, A Brief Overview of the European Union's Efforts to Harmonize the Requirements for Listing Securities. He also authored Chapter 196 of Business Organizations with Tax Planning, titled Company Laws of the European Union (1998). Mr. Willis wrote about investor protection issues in an article published in the July/August 2003 edition of Professional Investor, a United Kingdombased journal for institutional investors and investment professionals. A second article, co-authored by Mr. Willis, appeared in the same publication's May 2005 edition. He was also the co-author of the Comment entitled Corporation Code Sections 309 and 1203: California Redefines Directors' Duties Towards Shareholders, Pepperdine Law Review, Volume 16, No. 4 (1989).

Mr. Willis has been a frequent speaker at institutional investor conferences on the issues of investor protection through the federal securities laws and the importance of using corporate governance measures to force companies to put the interests of their shareholders first. In addition to numerous forums in the United States, Mr. Willis was invited to address these topics at institutional investor conferences held in London and Paris in January 2003 and spoke at similar conferences in Munich and Milan in the Spring of 2005. He also addressed corporate governance issues at the Annual Conference of the National Council on Teacher Retirement in October 2004.

Mr. Willis obtained a Masters in International Law, with an emphasis in securities regulation, from the Georgetown University Law Center in 1993. He graduated from Pepperdine University School of Law in 1989 where he was a member of the Moot Court

Team and won the Dalsimer Moot Court Competition. Mr. Willis received his B.A. in English History from Brigham Young University in 1986.

Mr. Willis is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Massachusetts.

Marc I. Machiz

Marc Machiz, a Partner at Cohen Milstein, joined the Firm in 2000 and is the head of the Employee Benefits (ERISA) practice group. He is the resident Partner of the Philadelphia office.

Mr. Machiz litigates ERISA class actions involving inappropriate pension plan investments, the inappropriate investment in company stock by 401(k) plans, and illegal plan terminations including, among others, Mehling, et al. v. New York Life Insurance Co., et al., (E.D. Pa.) and In re Williams Company ERISA Litigation (N.D. Okla).

He joined the Plan Benefits Security Division ("PBS") of the Office of the Solicitor of Labor as a trial attorney in 1978, and was appointed Assistant Counsel for Fiduciary Litigation in 1982. At the start of 1984, he joined Beins, Axelrod and Osborne, P.C. practicing general labor and ERISA law on behalf of unions and multiemployer plans. In 1986 he returned to the Department of Labor as Counsel for General Litigation at PBS, and from 1988 to 2000 held the position of Associate Solicitor, heading the Division. As Associate Solictor, Mr. Machiz was the Department of Labor's chief ERISA lawyer charged with responsibility for all enforcement litigation brought by the Secretary of Labor under the statute, which governs the vast majority of privately sponsored health, welfare and pension plans. He was also responsible for all legal advice under the statute provided to the Pension & Welfare Benefits Administration, which administers Title I of ERISA.

Mr. Machiz worked to institute the Department's innovative amicus program which aggressively advocated the Department's views throughout the judicial system on a wide range of ERISA issues ranging from the need to limit ERISA preemption of state worker and consumer protection laws to the need to strengthen participants' rights and remedies under the Act.

Mr. Machiz's expertise in ERISA has been recognized by his colleagues in the ERISA bar, who made him a Charter Fellow of the American College of Employee Benefits Counsel. Mr. Machiz is a frequent speaker on ERISA issues for the ABA, ALI-ABA, and private seminars, and has served as plaintiffs' co-chair of subcommittees of the Employees Benefits Committee of the ABA's Labor Section. He is also a member of the BNA Pension and Benefits Reporter Advisory Board.

Mr. Machiz has authored several articles including Understanding DOL's New Class Exemption for the Release of Claims and Extensions of Credit in Connection with Litigation, Pension & Benefits Reporter, Vol. 31, No. 2, January, 2004; and ESOPS, ERISA, and Employer Stock: A Litigator's Approach, ATLA Commercial Litigation Section Newsletter, Volume 7, Number 3 (Spring/Summer 2001).

He attended the University of Pennsylvania, where he earned a B.A. in History, and received his law degree from the University of California at Berkeley (Boalt Hall) in 1978.

Mr. Machiz is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Pennsylvania.

Paul T. Gallagher

Paul Gallagher, a Partner at the Firm, joined Cohen Milstein in 1996. He is a member of the Antitrust and International practice groups.

In the antitrust area, he has been involved in the successful prosecution of price-fixing litigation against manufacturers of explosives, which resulted in a $70 million settlement; a case against manufacturers of high fructose corn syrup for alleged price-fixing, which resulted in a settlement of over $500 million; abuse of monopoly claims against U.S. Tobacco Company; and price-fixing claims against Mercedes-Benz and a number of its regional dealers.

In the last several years, Mr. Gallagher has developed an expertise in issues involving International antitrust litigation. He played a major part in the international Auction Houses price-fixing litigation, which settled for $40 million. This suit was the first time that an international class, comprised solely of non-U.S. citizens, obtained compensation under the U.S. antitrust laws. He also argued and obtained a favorable D.C. Circuit Court of Appeals decision in the international In re Vitamins Antitrust Litigation, which has had a significant impact on antitrust jurisprudence and was characterized by one academician as "one of the most expansive antitrust decisions of the last 30 years."

In the human rights area, Mr. Gallagher played a prominent role in the historic litigation against major Swiss banks for withholding assets deposited by persecutees fleeing the Nazis prior to and during World War II. This litigation settled for $1.25 billion. He also played an active role in the litigation and resolution of claims against the German government and industry for, among other claims, the use of persecuted persons to perform slave labor during the War. That case resulted in a settlement of over $5.2 billion. Mr. Gallagher was honored by the Government of Poland for his contributions to this effort.

Mr. Gallagher received a B.A. in Government and Politics (1986) from George Mason University and graduated from the Marshall-Wythe School of Law of the College of William & Mary in 1992. He was a member of the William & Mary Law Review, as well as the Law Review of the University of Cincinnati School of Law, where he attended his first year of law school.

Mr. Gallagher is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Virginia.

Linda P. Nussbaum

Linda Nussbaum joined the Firm in 2001 and is the resident Partner of the New York City office and a member of the Antitrust practice group.

She is presently a lead or co-lead counsel in a number of significant antitrust class actions pending throughout the United States including: In re Remeron Direct Purchaser Antitrust Litigation (D.N.J.); In re Microcrystalline Cellulose Antitrust Litigation (E.D. Pa.); In re K-Dur Antitrust Litigation (D.N.J.); In re Plastics Additives Antitrust Litigation (E.D. Pa); In re Children's Ibuprofen Oral Suspension Antitrust Litigation (D.D.C.); In re Foundry Resins Antitrust Litigation, (E.D. Oh.); and In re DDAVP Litigation (S.D.N.Y.).

She has recently served as a lead counsel in a number of antitrust class actions that have resolved favorably for the plaintiff class including In re Lorazepam and Clorazepate Antitrust Litigation, (D.D.C.), where, in approving the $35 million settlement, Chief Judge Hogan commented, "Obviously, the skill of the attorneys, and I'm not going to spend the time reviewing it, I'm familiar with counsel, and they, as I said, are among the best antitrust litigators in the country;" In re Relafen Antitrust Litigation (D. Mass); and Oncology & Radiation Associates, P.A. v. Bristol Myers Sauibb Co. (D.D.C.) ($65) million settlement).

Ms. Nussbaum is a member of the American Law Institute. She has lectured at the ABA Antitrust Section Spring Meeting and at The University of San Francisco Pharmaceutical Antitrust Seminar.

Ms. Nussbaum received her undergraduate degree in Sociology and Journalism, magna cum laude, from Brooklyn College of the City University of New York in 1974, where she was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. She received her law degree from the National Law Center at George Washington University, where she graduated with honors in 1977. She received an LL.M. degree in Taxation from the New York University School of Law in 1984.

Ms. Nussbaum is admitted to practice in New York and the District of Columbia.

Stewart M. Weltman

Stewart Weltman joined the Firm in 2002 and is a Partner in the Antitrust practice group. In June, 2005, after having been in the Firm's Washington, DC office for two and one half years, Mr. Weltman returned to Chicago to head the firm's Chicago office on a full time basis.

Mr. Weltman is currently acting as co-lead counsel in the following antitrust cases: In Re Carbon Black Antitrust Litigation (D.C. Mass.), in which the court recently certified a nationwide class; In Re EPDM Antitrust Litigation (D.C. Conn.), in which two defendants have settled claims for a total of $55 million; In Re PCP Antitrust Litigation (D.C. Conn.), in which one defendant has settled claims for approximately $40 million; and In Re Pressure Sensitive Labelstock Antitrust Litigation (M.D. Pa.). Mr. Weltman was a member of the Firm's team in In re Vitamins Antitrust Litigation (D.D.C.), which resulted in a trial verdict in favor of the plaintiffs and the class of $49.5 million before trebling.

In addition to his antitrust responsibilities, Mr. Weltman also is currently acting as lead attorney or lead counsel in several securities fraud litigations. He is currently the lead attorney representing Pacific Life Insurance Company in its individual action brought against various underwriter defendants arising out of the WorldCom frauds. He also has been a leading lawyer in the redevelopment of what has become known as "holder" claims (shareholders who are induced to hold their securities by misrepresentations and omissions). He is co-lead counsel in the Mercury Finance class action (Cir. Ct., Cook Cnty., Ill.), one of the first of such "holder" class actions. In past cases, he served as Derivative Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel in a securities fraud and derivative/breach of fiduciary duty case in which a $33 million settlement was reached with the former directors and officers of the Public Service Company of New Mexico. He also served as co-lead counsel in Benfield v. Steindler and General Electric Co. (S.D. Ohio), a derivative action in which a settlement of $21 million was reached.

Mr. Weltman has been an adjunct instructor at The John Marshall Law School, and has served as a lecturer and panel member for numerous FDIC and RTC investigator training seminars and for AICPA Litigation Support Section seminars. Mr. Weltman has been a lecturer for the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education, and he co-authored an article for the American Bar Association Antitrust magazine, analyzing the Chicago School's influence on the Seventh Circuit's antitrust jurisprudence as of 1989.

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Mr. Weltman was a partner of Much Shelist Freed Denenberg Ament & Rubenstein P.C., and then a sole practitioner.

Mr. Weltman graduated from Roosevelt University with a B.A. in English Literature in 1975 and from the John Marshall Law School (J.D., High Distinction, 1978), where he was a member of the Law Review.

Mr. Weltman is admitted to practice in Illinois and the District of Columbia.

Christine E. Webber

Case 1:05-cv-00532-JJF

Christine Webber, a Partner at the Firm and a member of the Civil Rights & Employment Practice group, joined Cohen Milstein in 1997. She is the Partner in charge of the law clerk and summer associate program.

Ms. Webber represents plaintiffs in class action employment discrimination and Fair Labor Standards Act cases. Ms. Webber's current docket includes Dukes v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (N.D. Cal.), a certified class action for 1.5 million current and former female employees of Wal-Mart with complaints of discrimination in pay and promotion; Hnot v. Willis (S.D.N.Y.), representing a class of women at the vice-president level and above challenging sex discrimination in compensation and promotions; and Jenkins v. BellSouth (N.D. Ala.), representing a proposed class of African-American employees challenging race discrimination in promotions and compensation.

She represented plaintiffs in Beck v. The Boeing Co. (W.D. Wash.), a class action alleging sex discrimination in compensation and promotions which settled in 2004 for $72.5 million. She was counsel in Trotter v. Perdue (D. Del.), representing plaintiffs who were wrongly denied payment of overtime wages, and obtaining a $10 million settlement. She is also representing workers in a similar case against Tyson Foods, Inc.

In 2004, Ms. Webber was named one of the Top Lawyers in Washington, D.C. by Washingtonian Magazine.

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Ms. Webber received a Women's Law and Public Policy fellowship and worked for four years at the Washington Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights and Urban Affairs in their Equal Employment Opportunity Project. She worked on a variety of employment discrimination cases, and focused in particular on the sexual harassment class action Neal v. Director, D.C. Department of Corrections, et al. Ms. Webber participated in the trial of this ground-breaking sexual harassment class action in 1995. Ms. Webber also tried the race discrimination case Cooper v. Paychex (E.D. Va.), and successfully defended the plaintiffs' verdict before the Fourth Circuit.

Ms. Webber is a member of the National Employment Lawyers' Association (NELA) and co-chair of their Class Action Committee, and is a member of the Board of Advisors for the Annual Review of Gender and Sexuality Law of the Georgetown Journal of Gender and Law.

She graduated from Harvard University with a B.A. in Government (magna cum laude, 1988) and the University of Michigan Law School (J.D., magna cum laude, 1991, Order of the Coif). Following law school, Ms. Webber clerked for the Honorable Hubert L. Will, United States District Judge for the Northern District of Illinois.

Ms. Webber is admitted to practice in Illinois and the District of Columbia.

Richard A. Koffman

Richard Koffman, a Partner at the Firm, joined Cohen Milstein in 2003 and is a member of the Antitrust practice group. He is also co-chair of the firm's Pro Bono Committee.

He is currently serving as counsel for plaintiffs in, among other cases, In re Rubber Chemicals Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Ca.); In re Polyester Staple Antitrust Litigation (W.D.N.C.); and Hwang Geum Joo, et al. v. Japan (D.D.C.).

Mr. Koffman came to Cohen Milstein after four years as a senior trial attorney with the Antitrust and Civil Rights Divisions of the United States Department of Justice. Prior to joining the Department of Justice, he spent seven years in private practice, with Fine, Kaplan and Black in Philadelphia (working primarily on antitrust class actions and other complex commercial litigation) and then with Bernabei & Katz in Washington, D.C. (handling employment discrimination cases). While at Fine Kaplan, Mr. Koffman was actively involved in litigating several successful antitrust class actions on behalf of plaintiffs and classes, including In re Nasdaq Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.) (settled for more than $1 billion); In re Polypropylene Carpet Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Ga.); In re Commercial Explosives Antitrust Litigation (D. Utah); and In re Drill Bits Antitrust Litigation (S.D. Tex.).

Immediately after law school, he served as a judicial clerk for Judge James B. McMillan of the Western District of North Carolina, and for Judge Anthony J. Scirica of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

Mr. Koffman is the author of It's Not The First Time: Fudging the Truth in Discovery Proceedings Didn't Start with Clinton, Legal Times, August 24, 1998.

He is a graduate of Yale Law School (J.D., 1990), where he was a Senior Editor of the Law Journal, and Wesleyan University, from which he received a B.A., with honors, in English (1986).

Mr. Koffman is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia.

Attorney Profiles - Of Counsel & Associates

Scott L. Adkins

Scott Adkins joined the firm in 2005 as an associate in the Securities Litigation Group, where he represents defrauded investors in, among other cases, In re Sourcecorp Securities Litigation (N.D. Tex.) and In re Xybernaut Securities Litigation (E.D. Va.). Both cases involve accounting irregularities and alleged misconduct by former directors and officers.

Before joining the firm, Mr. Adkins spent several years at Skadden Arps and Lerach Coughlin, where Mr. Adkins defended and prosecuted some of the more noteworthy cases to arise under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 ("PSLRA") and the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act of 1998 ("SLUSA"). For example, at Skadden Arps, Mr. Adkins helped defend a panoply of actions filed after health care giant McKesson restated its earnings and saw $9 billion in market capitalization evaporate. At Lerach Couglin, Mr. Adkins prevailed in In re Sawtek Securities Litigation when he persuaded a district court that Section 804(b) of Sarbanes-Oxley revived previously time-barred claims – a real victory for investors in only one of two cases to so hold.

Mr. Adkins's clients have included major airlines, hedge funds, accounting firms, software companies, chip makers, directors and officers of public and private companies, as well as individual investors. He has successfully represented these clients at the trial and appellate levels and in regulatory enforcement actions. Two of Mr. Adkins's cases for individual investors led to those investors' recovering 100% of their losses.

Mr. Adkins writes regularly about the federal securities laws. His most recent article, "Circuits Split Over Jurisdiction To Review SLUSA Remand Orders," 33 Securities Regulation Law Journal 235 (Fall 2005), explains how the U.S Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit recently misinterpreted SLUSA's federal jurisdiction provisions and issued an appellate decision in the absence of appellate jurisdiction to do so in Kircher v. Putnam Funds, a case now pending certiorari before the United States Supreme Court.

After being honorably discharged from the United States Marine Corps, Mr. Adkins graduated from Florida Atlantic University with a B.A. in Chemistry in 1994. Then, in 1997, Mr. Adkins graduated Order of the Coif and with honors from The George Washington University Law School. After graduating law school, Mr. Adkins served first as law clerk to The Honorable Daniel T.K. Hurley, United States District Court, Southern District of Florida. Then, Mr. Adkins served as law clerk to The Honorable Alice M. Batchelder, United States Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

Mr. Adkins is admitted to practice in California and Delaware.

R. Joseph Barton

Joseph Barton joined Cohen Milstein as an Associate in 2001 and is a member of the Employee Benefits, Securities Fraud/Investor Protection and Antitrust practice groups.

Since joining the Firm, Mr. Barton has been actively involved in a number of class action employee benefit cases, including a case against New York Life Insurance Company, which alleges ERISA and RICO violations regarding the investment of the company's pension and 401(k) plans; and most recently a case against Owest Communications alleging that it violated ERISA regarding certain benefits provided to its retirees.

Mr. Barton is or has been active in a number of securities fraud lawsuits including In re Physician Corporation of America Securities Litigation (S.D.Flor.) (settlement of $10.2 million); In re MCI Securities Litigation (D.D.C.); and In re Gilat Satellite Networks Securities Litigation (E.D.N.Y.). He also represents limited partners of Lipper Convertibles, a now-defunct hedge fund, in a class action arbitration against the former general partners, and in federal court litigation against the outside auditor. Mr. Barton worked on a number of antitrust actions, including Ferko v. National Association of Stock Car Racing ("NASCAR") (E.D. Tex.) and In re High Fructose Corn Syrup Antitrust Litigation (D.Minn.), (settled for more than $500 million).

Mr. Barton worked on several pro bono cases, as well. She is currently involved in, among other cases, In re Globalstar Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y.); In re Compuware Securities Litigation (E.D.Mich.) and In re Williams Company ERISA Litigation (N.D. Okla)

Before coming to Cohen Milstein, Ms. Peterson served as the Fuchsberg Litigation Fellow at Public Citizen Litigation Group in Washington, D.C., where she litigated consumer and citizens' rights cases. Prior to law school, Ms. Peterson worked for the Union of Needletrades, Industrial and Textile Employees, running public campaigns on behalf of textile workers and conducting shareholder activities on behalf of the union's pension funds.

Following law school, Ms. Peterson clerked for the Honorable Stephanie K. Seymour, United States Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit.

Ms. Peterson received her undergraduate degree from Grinnell College (B.A., Political Science major and Chinese Studies minor, with honors, Phi Beta Kappa, 1989) and her law degree from New York University (J.D., Order of the Coif, 2001).

Ms. Peterson is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Texas.

James J. Pizzirusso

James Pizzirusso joined the Firm in 2001 as an Associate and is a member of the Unsafe Drugs & Environmental Health Threats and Consumer Protection practice groups.

Mr. Pizzirusso is currently working on cases involving lead paint, arsenic-treated wood, toxic solvents and low tar cigarettes. He and others at Cohen Milstein represent the City of Milwaukee in a public nuisance lawsuit against lead paint manufacturers and retailers. Mr. Pizzirusso was a member of the successful appellate team in City of Milwaukee v. NL, Inc. (Wisc. App. 2004). In overturning summary judgment in favor of defendants, the Wisconsin Court of Appeals became the first appellate court in the country to recognize the right of a governmental entity to bring a public nuisance and conspiracy lawsuit against the lead paint industry. Mr. Pizzirusso was also the lead student attorney and won a verdict in favor of the plaintiff under the Vaccine Injury Act in Dela Rosa v. Secretary of HHS (Fed. Cl. Aug. 14, 2001) (later settled for $9 million in lifetime care for the plaintiff).

Mr. Pizzirusso served as a panelist for "Consumer Protection Statutes," at the D.C. Bar Animal Law Conference in April 2004 and for "Public Interest Tort Litigation: Using Private Tort Actions to Further Environmental Justice & Public Ends," at the Public Interest Environmental Law Conference in March 2003. He is the author of two papers: Agency Rule-Making Power and the Clean Air Act: Putting the Brakes on American Trucking, Spring 2001 Term: Whitman v. American Trucking Associations, Inc., 7 Envtl. Law. 729 (June, 2001) and Increased Risk, Fear of Disease and Medical Monitoring -Are Novel Damage Claims Enough to Overcome Causation Difficulties in Toxic Torts, 7 Envtl. Law. 183 (September, 2000).

Prior to joining the Firm, he worked on several political campaigns and interned with the AFL-CIO.

Mr. Pizzirusso is a co-founder of the Vegetarian Legal Action Network (VLAN).

He graduated summa cum laude from the University of Tennessee-Knoxville with a B.A. in Environmental Policy (1998). While in college, he was a Whittle Scholar, a member of Phi Beta Kappa and earned the Torchbearer award for outstanding service to the University. In 2001, Mr. Pizzirusso obtained his law degree from George Washington University Law School (with honors) where he was a member of the Environmental Lawyer Journal and the Student Director of the law school clinical program. He was also Vice President of the Trial Court Board and Captain of a team that placed first in the region in ATLA's 2000-2001 Student Trial Advocacy Competition.

Mr. Pizzirusso is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Virginia.

Brian A. Ratner

Brian Ratner, an Associate at the Firm, joined Cohen Milstein in 2001 and is a member of the Antitrust and International practice groups. Mr. Ratner is also a member of the firm's Summer Associate Committee.

Mr. Ratner has worked extensively on the matter of In Re Vitamins Antitrust Litigation (D.D.C.) on behalf of two certified classes of vitamin direct purchasers who were overcharged as a result of a ten-year global price-fixing and market allocation conspiracy. Mr. Ratner acted as one of the lead associates in a 2003 trial in the case before Chief Judge Hogan, in which a jury unanimously found in favor of the class, awarding them $148,617,702 in trebled damages. The National Law Journal ranked this verdict as the 12th largest in 2003.

Mr. Ratner litigated, among other matters: Empagran, S.A. et al. v. F. Hoffmann-LaRoche, Ltd., et al. (D.D.C.), a case alleging a global vitamins price-fixing and market allocation conspiracy on behalf of foreign purchasers (remanded by U.S. Supreme Court); In Re Publication Paper Antitrust Litigation (D. Conn.), alleging price fixing and market allocation; and Oncology & Radiation Associates v. Bristol-Myers Squibb Co. (D.D.C.), alleging monopolization against a drug manufacturer, which settled for $65 million.

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Mr. Ratner worked for Jones, Day, Reavis & Pogue where he focused on complex civil and commercial litigation, corporate securities litigation, and antitrust. He also performed merger clearance and corporate counseling antitrust work related to the CBS/Viacom and AOL/Time Warner mergers.

Mr. Ratner graduated from Indiana University-Bloomington with a B.A. in Journalism (1996) and a second major in Political Science. In college, he was a member of the Mortar Board National Honor Society, did undergraduate work at Hebrew University in Jerusalem, Israel, and worked on several political campaigns including the re-election campaign of former U.S. Senator Harris Wofford. Mr. Ratner obtained his law degree from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law (1999), where he was the Managing Editor of the Journal of Law and Commerce. During law school, Mr. Ratner externed for the Hon. Donetta W. Ambrose (W.D. Pa.).

Mr. Ratner is admitted to practice in New Jersey, Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia.

Julie Goldsmith Reiser

Julie Goldsmith Reiser joined the Firm in 1999 as an Associate and is a member of both the Securities Fraud/Investor Protection and Civil Rights & Employment practice groups. Currently, she is working on Dukes v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (N.D. Cal.), class action which has been certified for 1.5 million current and former female employees of Wal-Mart on complaints of discrimination in pay and promotion, and In re Parmalat Securities Litigation (S.D.N.Y.), a securities fraud class action alleging artificial inflation in the price of Parmalat's securities. She has also been involved in the litigation and successful settlement of Beck v. The Boeing Co. (W. D. Wash.), which alleged sex discrimination in compensation and promotions; In re P-Com Securities Litigation (N.D.Cal.) ($16 million settlement); and In re Sabratek Securities Litigation (N.D.Ill.) ($15.3 million settlement).

Ms. Reiser co-authored Companies in the Cross Hairs: When Plaintiffs Lawyers Choose Their Targets, They Look for These Employment Practices, The Legal Times, February 21, 2005. In 1999, she co-authored Antitrust Introduction for the General Practitioner, a chapter in the Washington Lawyer's Practice Manual.

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Ms. Reiser worked in Seattle, Washington where she focused primarily on guardianship and healthcare litigation. She was President of the Board of Directors of Seattle Works and chaired the Nominating Committee for the Board of Directors of the Eastside Domestic Violence Program. She also served a term as a Trustee for the Pacific Northwest Ballet. In 1997, Ms. Reiser worked as a Legal Intern for U.S. Senator Patty Murray.

Ms. Reiser graduated from Vassar College (B.A., International Studies, with honors, 1992) and the University of Virginia Law School (J.D., 1997). While in law school, she was a member of the Virginia Journal of Law and Social Policy.

Ms. Reiser is admitted to practice in Washington State and the District of Columbia.

Bruce F. Rinaldi

Bruce Rinaldi joined the Firm in 2004 as Of Counsel and is a member of the Employee Benfits practice group.

After clerking for United States District Judge James A. Walsh in Tucson, Arizona, Mr. Rinaldi taught at the University of Arizona School of Law and was in private practice in Tucson before serving as a Special Counsel in the Office of the General Counsel at the Securities and Exchange Commission. In 1979 he joined the Special Litigation Division in the Office of the Solicitor of Labor as Supervisory Trial Attorney, where he ran the litigation of Donovan v. Fitzsimmons (N.D. Ill.), negotiating and drafting a consent decree governing the management of billions of dollars in assets of the Teamsters Central States Pension Fund, which remains in effect today. Mr. Rinaldi also conducted a four month trial of allegations of ERISA fiduciary breaches with respect to the Teamsters Central States Health and Welfare Fund in Brock v. Robbins (D.C. N.D. III.).

In 1985 Mr. Rinaldi became the Senior Trial Attorney in the Plan Benefits Security Division of the Department of Labor. Mr. Rinaldi litigated a wide range of major fiduciary breach cases brought by the Secretary of Labor under ERISA including the seminal case of Reich v. Valley National Bank (S.D.N.Y.), concerning fiduciary breaches in the acquisition of employer stock by an ESOP. In 1989 Mr. Rinaldi joined the Office of Thrift Supervision ("OTS") as the Associate Chief Counsel for Litigation and directed investigations and enforcement actions under the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act ("FIRREA") for fiduciary breaches arising out of failures of thrifts and savings and loan organizations. He directed all of the enforcement actions taken by the OTS against officers, directors, accountants, and attorneys associated with Lincoln Savings and Loan Association, the largest thrift failure in history. See In re American Continental Corp./Lincoln Sav. & Loan Securities Litigation (D.C. Ariz.).

In 2000, Mr. Rinaldi left the government for private practice. As the senior litigator at the McTigue Law Firm, Mr. Rinaldi was responsible as co-lead counsel for several cases, including the approved settlement of a case against the fiduciaries of the Morrison Knudson 401(k) plan, which was resolved for $21 million; In re McKesson HBOC, Inc. ERISA Litigation (N.D. Cal.); and In re CMS Energy ERISA Litigation (E.D.Mich.).

Mr. Rinaldi earned a B.A. in Political Science from the University of California at Berkeley in 1969, after spending three years as a Peace Corps volunteer in Venezuela, and then received his law degree from the University of California at Davis (King Hall) in 1972.

He is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and is an inactive member of the Arizona and California Bars.

Susan R. Schwaiger

Susan Schwaiger joined Cohen Milstein as Of Counsel in 2001 and is a member of the Antitrust practice group.

Ms. Schwaiger currently works on a number of major multi-district antitrust litigations. In most of these cases the Firm serves as co-lead counsel. The cases include: In re Plastics Additives Antitrust Litigation (E.D.Pa); In re Microcrystalline Cellulose Antitrust Litigation (E.D.Pa.) (partial $50 million settlement with one defendant pending final court approval); In re Pineapples Antitrust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.); In re Linens Antitrust Litigation (S.D.N.Y.); and In re Rubber Chemicals Antitrust Litigation (N.D. Ca.). She participated in several antitrust cases successfully resolved, including In re Lorazepam & Clorazepate Antitrust Litigation (D.D.C.) ($35 million settlement).

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Ms. Schwaiger was a litigation associate at Shearman & Sterling and Pomerantz, Haudek, Block, Grossman & Gross, LLP in New York City. At Shearman & Sterling, she was a key member of the litigation team representing Shannon Faulkner and several other women in their successful challenge to the all-male admissions policy of The Citadel Corps of Cadets in Charleston, South Carolina. After five years of litigation and three appeals, women were admitted to The Citadel and the court awarded fees to plaintiffs' counsel as a result of the defendants' "scorched earth tactics." At the Pomerantz firm, she worked on In re Sorbates Direct Purchaser Antitrust Litigation, (N.D.Cal.), which resulted in an $82 million partial settlement fund.

Ms. Schwaiger received her bachelor's degree in 1971 with a major in Psychology from the University of Tennessee and a master's degree in Educational Psychology and Counseling from the University of Kentucky in 1973. She graduated cum laude from Brooklyn Law School in 1992, where she was a member of the Brooklyn Law Review.

Ms. Schwaiger is admitted to practice in New York.

Daniel W. Sigelman

Daniel Sigelman joined the Firm as Of Counsel in 2005 and is a member of the Unsafe Drugs & Environmental Health Threats practice group.

Mr. Sigelman concentrates on mass tort/product liability and economic injury litigation against pharmaceutical and medical device manufacturers. His current work includes class action medical monitoring lawsuits focusing on the safety of heart valves; mass tort and ERISA cases involving drug products, such as Vioxx; and third party payor litigation against drug and medical device companies. Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, he held lead roles in product liability actions against FDA-regulated companies, including Grundberg v. The Upjohn Company (D. Utah) and In re St. Jude Medical, Inc., Silzone Heart Valves Products Liability Litigation (D. Minn.).

Mr. Sigelman is an adjunct professor at the George Washington University Department of Health Policy and Health Services, where he teaches pharmaceutical policy. He is a frequent lecturer and commentator on health care and pharmaceutical/medical device issues. He has published several articles in Trial and other publications relating to discovery and the role of FDA regulation in pharmaceutical litigation and on congressional oversight of FDA's regulation of drug safety.

From 1979 to 1981, Mr. Sigelman served as a staff attorney to the Public Citizen Health Research Group. From 1981 to 1988, he was counsel to the House Subcommittee on Human Resources and Intergovernmental Relations, where he conducted investigative oversight of the Food and Drug Administration. His investigations produced numerous congressional hearings on the FDA's regulation of unsafe drugs, many of which were removed from the market for safety reasons. Some of his investigative findings forced changes in the FDA's regulations as well as review of procedures and policies and even led to several successful federal prosecutions of pharmaceutical manufacturers for violating the federal Food, Drug, & Cosmetic Act. He authored numerous congressional committee reports on his investigations of the FDA's regulation of the safety of the nation's human and animal drug and food supply. From 1988-2000, he practiced in Atlanta, Georgia where he worked on drug and medical device cases and other types of litigations.

Mr. Sigelman is a graduate of Dartmouth College (summa cum laude, 1972), where he received a B.A. in English. He attended the University of California, Berkley, earning a Master's degree in English (1975), and the Boalt Hall School of Law, the University of California, Berkeley (J.D., 1979).

Mr. Sigelman is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Georgia.

Donna F. Solen

Donna Solen, an Associate at Cohen Milstein, joined the Firm in 1997 and is a member of the Consumer Protection practice group.

At Cohen Milstein, Ms. Solen concentrates on complex litigation and class actions in consumer protection matters. Currently she works on, among other matters, In re Lupron Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation (D. Mass.) (brought against pharmaceutical companies on pricing policies and methods; combined $150 million settlement pleading), a class action lawsuit for violations of RICO and various state laws brought by individuals and entities against drug manufacturers; Strugano v. Nextel Communications, Inc., et al. (Sup. Ct., L.A. Cnty, CA), a certified California class action lawsuit brought by subscribers for failure to provide notice of unilateral changes to subscriber agreements; and Watkins, et al v. Dryclean USA, et al. (Circuit Court, Miami-Dade County, FL), a class action lawsuit alleging violations of the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act by drycleaners for charging a non-existent "environmental tax".

Ms. Solen graduated from Florida State University with a B.A. in Multinational Business (magna cum laude, 1994) and obtained her law degree from the University of Florida College of Law (J.D., with honors, 1997). J. Int'l L. 275 (1995) and a Comment entitled Forum Non Conveniens and the International Plaintiff, 9 Fla. J. Int'l L. (1994).

Ms. Solen is admitted to practice in Florida and the District of Columbia.

Charles E. Tompkins

Charles Tompkins, an Associate at Cohen Milstein, joined the Firm in 1999 and is a member of the Civil Rights & Employment and Antitrust practice groups. Mr. Tompkins also serves as the firm's Paralegal Coordinator, supervising the paralegals in all practice

In the employment field, Mr. Tompkins obtained summary judgment in Robinson-Smith v. GEICO (D.D.C.) on behalf of a nationwide class of Auto Damage Adjusters whose employer, GEICO, refused to pay them overtime. GEICO began paying overtime shortly after the Adjusters' victory, and the United States Department of Labor has since cited Robinson-Smith in an official opinion letter. Mr. Tompkins was part of the legal team that obtained a $10 million settlement on behalf of chicken-processing workers who were not paid for the time they spent putting on and taking off their required safety equipment (Trotter v. Perdue Farms, Inc., et al. (D.Del.)). Perdue Farms changed its practices as part of a global settlement, and now pays its employees for this time.

Mr. Tompkins also is a member of the team litigating Dukes v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. (N.D.Cal.), in which female employees of Wal-Mart seek redress for unfair gender discrimination, in the largest Title VII certified class action. He is serving as counsel in Chase v. AIMCO Properties, et al., in which apartment maintenance employees seek overtime pay for time spent responding to service requests; and Hnot v. Willis, et al. (S.D.N.Y.), in which the Court certified a class of over one hundred female insurance brokerage executives who allege sexual discrimination in compensation and promotions.

In the antitrust field, Mr. Tompkins was a member of the trial team that, following a twoweek trial in a price-fixing case, obtained a $56.4 million judgment on behalf of Maine wild blueberry growers. Mr. Tompkins also was part of the team that litigated the federal antitrust actions Amo Marine Products, Inc., v. Brunswick Corp. (D.Minn) ($20 million settlement) and Paper Systems, Inc. v. Mitsubishi Corp. et al. (E.D.Wisc.) ($20 million settlement on the eve of trial).

Mr. Tompkins also has significant appellate appearance. He was involved in the briefing and second-chaired the argument of Free v. Abbott Laboratories before the United States Supreme Court. In addition, Mr. Tompkins briefed and argued Swift v. Auto-Zone (S. Ct. Mass. 2003), an employment action alleging violations of Massachusetts state law, and Manchester v. Primerica Financial Services, et al. (11th Cir. 2001), an action alleging violations of California employment law and RICO.

Prior to joining Cohen Milstein, Mr. Tompkins was an associate with the Washington, D.C. office of Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld, L.L.P., where he focused primarily on employment class action litigation.

Mr. Tompkins graduated magna cum laude from Colgate University in 1992 with a B.A. in English and from the University of Virginia School of Law in 1997.

He has been admitted to practice in New York and the District of Columbia.

Jenny R. Yang

Jenny Yang joined the Firm in 2003 as an Associate and is a member of the Civil Rights & Employment practice group.

Currently, she works on Jenkins v. BellSouth (N.D.Ala.), a race discrimination case alleging systemic discrimination in pay and promotions, and Robinson-Smith v. GEICO (D.D.C.) and Lindsay v. GEICO (D.D.C.), two separate nationwide lawsuits challenging GEICO's refusal to pay auto damage adjusters overtime. In addition, Ms. Yang was on the team that represented the plaintiffs and class in Beck v. The Boeing Company (W.D. Wash.), a class action alleging sex discrimination in compensation and promotions. which successfully settled for up to $72.5 million.

Ms. Yang is a contributing editor of the ABA Labor & Employment Law Section's employment discrimination treatise, Lindemann & Grossman, Employment Discrimination Law, upcoming 4th Edition.

Prior to joining the Firm, Ms. Yang was a Senior Trial Attorney with the United States Department of Justice, Civil Rights Division, Employment Litigation Section, where she worked for five years on both pattern or practice and individual federal employment discrimination cases against state and local governments. She litigated cases involving discrimination based on race, sex and national origin. Before her work at the Department of Justice, Ms. Yang received a community service fellowship to work at the National Employment Law Project in New York City, a non-profit organization focusing on lowwage workers' rights. While there, she worked on ground-breaking joint-employer liability litigation to hold garment manufacturers liable for unpaid wages owed to garment workers under the Fair Labor Standards Act. After law school, Ms. Yang clerked for the Honorable Edmund Ludwig on the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. In 1992-1993, Ms. Yang worked on the Presidential Transition and at the White House, Office of Presidential Personnel.

Ms. Yang served as a National Co-Chair and Board Member of the National Asian Pacific American Women's Forum from 1998-2004.

Ms. Yang graduated from Cornell University (B.A., Government, with distinction, 1992) and New York University School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 1996) where she was a Root-Tilden Public Interest Scholar and a Note and Comment Editor of the Law Review.
